THE BROADWAY BRIDGE .- On the 23d day of June last Mayor Hoffman approved the resolutions adopted by the Common Council in favor of authorizing the Street Commisbraige at the intersection of Broadway and Philton at, at a cost not to exceed $15.000. In compliance with the terms of the resolutions, Mr. Cornell, then Street Commissioner, adver-tised for proposals for the work a few days afterward, and on the 12d days of July following, the combasts was awarded to the the resonance of the work a few days afterward, and on the 12d day of July following, the contract was awarded to the Architectural Iron Works, they being the lowest binders, and the time stipulated in the contract for the completion of said work was free months.

Upon a visit to the contractors' works yesterday, we saw the bridge in a partial state of completion. Hege iron beams and girders were solvilly rivered together, and the whole gave prombe of the immense strength of the structure. The contractors propose to put the bridge together at their works, and then subsect it to a severe rest.

Should this be successful the bridge will be taken apart, and carried in sections to the place upon which it will be erected. The contractors also state that the bridge will be of the capacity of 20 tans, but that at no time can there be more than 10 tans apon it. A fall description of this bridge has appeared in The Thusux. Owing to maveoidable delays, it is understood that the bridge cannot be erected until the middle of January or the first of February next.

TROT, Oct 20, 1966.

MRASEL PROE & HELINAN, GENERAL AGENTS OF CONNECTICET MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPARY—Gentlemen: The undersigned, policy holders in the Gennecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., feel that it is too late in the day for this Company to need any recommendation from us. Yet, in view of the fact that rival companies are jealous of her unparalleled success, and are making an effort to disparage her, we take great pleasure in saying that the Connections
Mutual has done better by us than was promised. Your representations to us have been more than realized. The non-forfeltable feature tions to us have been more than realized. The non-fortestable feature adopted by your Company—the great scenemy and prudence in the management of its tusiness—the large dividends annually paid to us, and especially the 60 per cent dividend paid this year—also the change made by which, in the settlement of policies at death, not even a single note of the content of the change is not a content of the change. gle note comes out of the policy—all combine to increase (if any in crease is possible) our confidence in year Company. And we cheer fully recommend it to all destring to get their lives insured. We would not change our insurance in this for one in any other company.
